- [H3] I ordered MS Office Pro 2021 from Brytesoft on 04/26/25 - a week ago - for $60. Message from Microsoft at installation: Product Code Invalid. I replied to BS (Brytesoft), they said sorry try this product key. I uninstalled Office, reinstalled, put in the product key, also invalid. I replied on the now established thread with BS and said this product key doesn't work either, please refund my payment. I disputed the charge with my credit card company and noticed BS is based in Singapore. They responded there was a glitch, please try this one and if it doesn't work, we'll be glad to refund your payment and give you big discount on next product. I reluctantly uninstalled Office, reinstalled, put in the Product Code and it was also invalid which I let them know and asked for an immediate refund. They replied so sorry, would you be willing to try it one more time and added the same promise of success and an even bigger discount on next product. I responded no, I'm not doing this a fourth time, it's a waste of time, we're done and I expect a refund today. Radio silence since then and no refund on my credit card to date. Stay FAR AWAY from this company. They don't sell products, they sell hit or miss product codes so your success, if any, will be dependent on chance. I purchased Office 2021 from WalMart for $10 more and it installed perfectly.

- [H3] Extremely Disappointing Customer Service My experience with BT Business has been incredibly frustrating. Every time I call, I'm forced to go through the same lengthy verification process, only to be transferred to another department where I have to repeat everything again. It's a complete waste of time. What's worse is the misinformation from the sales team. I was clearly told that they would retrieve our existing number, but once the broadband was installed, I was informed that this wasn't possible. This level of disorganization and lack of accountability is unacceptable. I would strongly advise others to avoid BT Business and consider more reliable providers.

- [H3] As someone who has worked in behavioral health for over 20 years and now works as a high-level professional with lots of public speaking for crowds of over 250, I cannot recommend Kick beta blockers enough. These have changed my life and my career. I am so grateful. I have diagnosed agoraphobia with panic disorder since my teens and have worked very hard to build coping skills and build stability for my mental health. But living my best life both personally and professionally was still out of reach due to my panic symptoms, until I found Kick. And this entire process is so easy, again, I'm extremely grateful for Kick.

- [H3] That was my worst experience of flower delivery ever: I ordered flowers for my Godmother for her birthday. Nobody will tell you from beginning that delivery will be organised by DHL, of course on website is written they work with local florists. So today is 2.05. FloraQueen sent flowers 30.04. So you can imagine what conditions of roses was after 3 days in the box: no one rose was elastic, they are soft and ready to fall off. So, I paid 77€ to get almost dead flowers for my godmother. So.. if you would like to get unfresh dead flowers for extra price - welcome to the FloraQueen!

- [H3] Went into farmers autocare this morning and was greeted by Craig on reception I thought I had a slow puncture turns out it was a faulty valve as it turned out it was two faulty valves , nothing was a problem was asked if I wanted to wait which I did was offered a coffee and waited in the waited area which was clean and tidy because of the type of valves on my car it took a little longer than normal but nothing was too much trouble, craig even showed me the type of valve and explained everything price was very reasonable, in all a great experience David shufflebotham.

- [H3] You want (need) to use Dextego if you need to make sure everyone in your sales team is performing at the same level. Not just that though: That top performer sales rep you got? They could be doing even better. And that sales training? It's going to get wasted if you don't make sure your people implement what they learned. So, as a sales trainer myself and a Dextego user: The best time to give it a try was yesterday. You'll be thankful you listened to this review when more deals start getting signed.

- [H3] I recently purchased a vehicle from Land Rover Swansea and was fortunate to be looked after by Lewis Broad. His customer service was truly outstanding—he went above and beyond at every stage of the process to ensure the experience was not only smooth but also memorable and special. Lewis demonstrated exceptional professionalism, attention to detail, and genuine care throughout. I would highly recommend him to anyone looking for first-class service

- [H3] Using Trusted House Sitters has downright improved our quality of life. We love our cats, we love our home and we love our plants and garden. We also love to travel, so it used to be a juggling hassle to find care at our home. Since we paid the very modest annual fee, it's been a breeze to review applicants and could rate the right sitter. We've had 2 extended trips this year and 2 excellent experiences with sitters.

- [H3] I paid $97 for the assessment, scheduled it for the following morning but cancelled it an hour after I made the appt. Not only did he argue with me as to why I cancelled it, and wouldn't just accept the cancellation, but now he does not want to refund my $97 saying he had invested time in me even though I never had an assessment!!
